

Ratsputin

Avatar Name: Ratsputin Famous lover. Lots of squirrel rat babies all over the place. A extreme version of the idea that you want to make a good intimate conection with everyone. Lots of interplay between the australian Chirido people. He's a folk legend/hero with an insane amount of Charisma. He's known in the area surrounding the land bridge and starts going out into the wider world to meet with other people. Intermigals with the Fleurs and there is some crossover between him and those of that civilization.
