

Nenuphar

Captial of the Fleurs. Seat of the Council and the center of magical innovation within the country. The city is situated on the Eastern edge of the river delta leading into the nearby sea. Many of the streets are built along the rivers with travle between places being possible both by walking or by boat. The population of the city is predominantly the Fleur with a majority of them being of the original "Descended" lineage. A minority of the Fleurs are of the "Fallen" lineage and face scrutiny from those in the area.
