

Porrupt (Firefrogs)

There is an alpha frog, not an avatar just a big guy. He bathes in a massive lava pool in the volcano. They have psychic powers/inclinations. They do jazz and are music centered. They use their expandable neck pouch things to play uninterrupted extremely complex melodies and poly-rhythms. Are nearly completely immune to fire damage, but Are still capable of being burnt. They have lightly acidic spit, like it would burn the hell out of your eyes but your skin Would be lightly reddened. They absolutely love getting trashed on the hallucinogenic vines from the schi-hil. If you where to give the large frog a huge amount of it, you could trigger a transcendent event. Nearly everything they eat drink and smoke is laced with the vine. There is a black market in most major cities for trafficking this vine to the porrupt as they'll spend exorbitant amounts for more highly refined and potent vine.
